

BOARD DIPLOMA EXAMINATION, NOVEMBER 2025

DCME – THIRD SEMESTER EXAMINATION

DATABASE MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Time: 3 hours

Total Marks: 80

PART—A

Instructions:

- Answer all questions.
 - Each question carries three marks.
 - Answers should be brief and straight to the point and shall not exceed five simple sentences.
1. Define instances and schemas.
 2. What is normalization in DBMS?
 3. What are the responsibilities of database administrator?
 4. Write the benefits of SQL.
 5. Write the syntax and example for any three number functions in SQL.
 6. Write the syntax for input and output statements in PL/SQL.
 7. Give the structure of a PL/SQL block.
 8. Define trigger.
 9. What is an implicit cursor?
 10. Write any three advantages of MongoDB.

PART—B

Instructions:

- Answer any five questions.
- Each question carries ten marks.

- Answers should be comprehensive and the criteria for valuation is the content, not the length.

11. Explain entity-relationship model with example.

12. Explain different types of mapping cardinalities in detail.

13. Explain select statement in SQL with order by and group by clauses, with examples.

14. Explain transaction control commands (commit, savepoint and rollback) in SQL with examples.

15. Explain parameter modes in PL/SQL using function with example program.

16. Explain PL/SQL if..else statement with example program.

17. Explain about explicit cursors in PL/SQL with example program.

18. Explain the classification of NoSQL in detail.